INTRODUCTION

This little book of genealogy was born of the love of ancestry, from a dying request of Mrs. Hannah Adams Eldredge, to her daughter-in-law Mrs. Jane Jennings Eldredge, to seek for her mother's lineage: Betsey Leavitt, b. 1800, dau. of Jeremiah L., b. 1762, of Grantham, N. H.

It was in the course of this work that the family Leavitt of Southern Utah and Nevada came in rapport with Mrs. Eldredge. An organization was effected on November 7, 1919, with Mr. Frank Sam Leavitt, of Mesquite, Nevada, President, (No. 1393, page 117) and Mrs. Selena Hafen Leavitt, his wife, as Recording Secretary, and other officials were appointed, including Mrs. Eldredge as printing and publishing committee. She has paid all expenses herself and fixed the price of the book at $1.00, so as to make it of easy access to all. In spite of her serious illness, Mrs. Eldredge continued her interest in this long and tedious work, and now we are, (the printers and genealogist) glad to send it to our patient subscribers, in the hope that it will prove of value in the chain of coming generations, and a stepping stone to a more elaborate work placing all our gleanings into perfect order.

HOW TO USE THIS BOOK

The index is the key to this book. The number on the left of each name, tells you the number of the name, the year of birth is at the right of each name; the following is the page where it appears. When two pages are indicated, the second one shows the page where the family of the individual is found. For instance: Jeremiah Leavitt desires to see where his name is recorded—he knows the date of his birth; suppose 1851. He looks where the L—Leavitt columns are, turns to the J—, find the Jeremiahs. The oldest is first, he follows the years down to 1851. There is: “No. 1330, Jeremiah, IV (Fourth) 1851—103, 140.” It means that on page 103, under his father’s article, the fifth child, he finds his birth date and place of birth. He notices a * preceding No. 1330. That tells him that his family appears later; “103, 140.” See then at page 140. Here is his whole family.

Another instance: Mrs. Brigham Marriot wants to see her own family record; she was a Leavitt; she turns to index for letter M—Marriott and finds: “1468, Brigham, 1873—128,” She goes to page 128, searches Article 1468, and there, her own name is given first in large type: Malinda F. Leavitt (John Quincy, John, Jeremiah I, Nathaniel, Joseph, Moses, John). These seven last names are those of her direct line, from her father John Quincy, to her grandfather John Leavitt, etc., to John Hingham b. 1608, page 46. Any Leavitt can go back to his direct ancestors, for instance: “1393 Franklin S. Leavitt 1867, 105, 117, 87.” Turn to Index, page 105. In the first place he is with his father’s children. He notes No. 1092 Dudley Leavitt, son of Jeremiah. Where can he find his father’s birth? Turn to the Index L—Leavitt; then the D—Dudley; look for left number 1092 You find: “1092 Dudley, 1830 . . . 85, 104.” On page 85 then he appears as a child: “*1092. Dudley, b. 1830, d. 15 Oct

1908 in Southern Utah. His father: 826, Jeremiah, can be found likewise in index, and so on to John of Hingham—page 46. Under No. 1163, page 87, mention is made of his name again.

Other example: 2426, Ellen Melvina Leavitt finds in Index that her name appears as a child only. Her husband, Mr. James Tullis, is found in Index: "2426, James, 1870. Add. "This signifies that the record came late and was placed in the Additions at the end of the book." There, under Article 2426 will be found the whole family.

Another thought about our Index is that it will help those who work on correlation of families, to find readily if the name they look for is in the book.

More than anybody, we realize that many imperfections remain in our work; we will be thankful for informations calculated to identify and complete each family left incomplete and in fine we send our joy to have helped a little in this great work of setting in order some of the thousands of names scattered in our Salt Lake and other genealogical libraries.

CECILIA G. STEED, Genealogist.

1499. JAMES ALANSON ELDREDGE, a successful business man of Davis County, Utah, was by his mother Hannah Adams, No. 1135, a grandson of Betsey Leavitt (see No. 832) and a great grandson of Jeremiah Leavitt 1 and his wife Sarah (Shannon) of Hatley, Standstead Co., Province of Quebec, Canada; the second great grandson of Nathaniel Leavitt; third great grand son of Joseph Leavitt; fourth great grand son of Moses Leavitt and a fifth great grand son of Diacon John Leavitt of Hingham, who was b. in 1608 in Scotland and died 20 Nov., 1691 at Hingham, Mass., having made his will No. 30th, 1689.

Mr. Eldredge married Jane, dau. of William Jennings and his wife Jane (Walker) Jennings; b. in Salt Lake City, March 19th, 1856. It was her, a genealogist of Davis County, who undertook the arduous work to trace her husband's lineage, both on Eldredge and Leavitt lines; also the Walker or her mother's line has been published by Mrs. Jane Jennings Eldredge and beside, she has gathered thousands of Jenning families of England, that may some day be co-ordinated in regular pedigree.

It was also Mrs. Eldredge, always generous as she was discrete, who placed on register for her son-in-law Robert Alvin Moss the genealogy of the Small family of America, from the work of Mrs. Underwood and many other services have been rendered by her to the cause of the genealogy through Davis County and Salt Lake City. Their child:
